Introduction

I became interested in the genealogy of the Steele family when I was quite young. My family was fortunate to have a copy of the book, A Genealogy Of The Descendants Of George Steele And His Wife Margaret Late of Hopewell Township Bedford County, Pa., compiled by William Henry Welfley a great-great-grandson of George, (The Herald Printing Company, 1909). I will refer to this book as the 1909 Steele genealogy. Reading about the Steele family fascinated me and this fueled my interest in genealogy.

I began my genealogical research in 1970. Researching was more difficult then as computers were not readily available. In 1978, with the assistance of my mother (Jeraldean Hushower Johnson), I compiled an every name index to the 1909 Steele genealogy. All researchers know that an index is essential for any genealogical source.

In my early research on the Steele family, I failed to record some of my sources. Because of this, some portions of this book may not have documentation. Please forgive me for that data which is not properly referenced. We all learn eventually how important proper documentation is, but usually only after it is too late to go back and find those references.

I tried to make every effort to avoid errors in data entry, however, there are probably some errors that I did not find in proofreading and I apologize for those errors. There will be some gaps in family information. A genealogy is never finished! However, there comes a time when you must put together what information you have. This is the time! Perhaps someone looking at this book will be inspired to write a newer version of the Steele genealogy in the twenty first century.

The original 1909 Steele genealogy, was used as the basis for this book. All names, dates, and locations found in that book were entered into the computer. These names, dates and locations were only changed when other documentation showed them to be in error. Also used as a basis was, A Genealogy Of The Descendants Of Elias Steele and His Wife Elizabeth Late of St. Joseph County, Indiana, compiled by Anna Steele (a granddaughter), Nellie Verkler (a great granddaughter) and Grant Steele (a great grandson), (privately printed, 1955). Since this book was compiled later, the names, dates and locations found in the 1955 genealogy were used if different from that found in the 1909 book, unless it was obvious that an error occurred.

Information on the descendants of Esther ^{3} Hochstetler (Elizabeth ^{2} Arnold, Philip ^{1}) was supplemented in part using the book Descendants of Jacob Hochstetler The Immigrant of 1736 by Rev. Harvey Hostetler, D.D. (Brethren Publishing House, Elgin, Illinois, 1912). Again, names, dates and locations were used in place of the 1909 Steele

Genealogy.

When reference dates of 1909, 1912, and 1955 are given, this refers to information found in the three genealogies mentioned above. In general, information from the most recent genealogy was used.

Names, dates, and locations in the current generations were often obtained from those individuals or close relatives. Often, references were not duplicated, but documented in the notes of the oldest individual stating information on descendants was submitted.

I used Family Tree Maker™ 4.0 for Windows (Broderbund Software, Banner Blue Division, P.O. Box 6125, Novato, California 94948-6125) to organize my data and to print out the genealogy. The National Genealogical Society Quarterly format was chosen for this genealogy. Unfortunately there is an error in the program that caused some numbers not being listed in the correct order. Numbers 985, 989, 996, and 997 are located on page 163, after Numbers 1004 and 1005. This in turn caused the children of these individuals to be numbered out of sequence. This should not cause any problem as all numbers do correctly correspond with the right individual. The program also does not allow the print out of vital statistics for spouses, therefore these statistics were entered separately in the notes section on those individuals.

The compiler of this genealogy is greatly indebted to all those who submitted information on their descendants. Those individuals who submitted considerable information on their lines are as follows: Monagene Barbknecht (Seward Chase Reinhardt), Leona Brown (Mary [Polly] Steele), Joyce Clark (Rev. Elias Steele), Walter Keiser (Sarah Jane Steele), Marilyn Oden (Julie Steele), and Mary Rose Steele, who was instrumental in finding the location of Philip Steele's grave site and who has carried out considerable research on the immigrant George Steele. Only because of your sharing and cooperation, this compiled genealogy is possible.

I would like to express special thanks to my aunt Vera Hushower Peterson for her constant prodding, asking questions, giving me suggestions and getting me back on course when I strayed during my researching. Finally, I would like to acknowledge the patience my late mother, Jeri Hushower Johnson, showed during the many times she accompanied me to cemeteries, court houses, and libraries as I tried to "dig up our lost relatives".

George Steele - Immigrant Ancestor

There is much yet to be found on the immigrant George Steele. The compiler of the original 1909 George Steele Genealogy, William Henry Welfley (grandson of Philip Steele) was a well known scholar on the history of Somerset County, Pennsylvania having written History of Somerset County published in 1906. This history is considered the standard history of the county. He therefore writes with authority regarding the migration of George Steele to the area. For this reason, I am reprinting a portion of what he wrote in the Historical portion of his Steele Genealogy.

> "There can hardly be any reasonable doubt that he (George Steele, the immigrant) was a scion from a German stock. Whether the family name as we now know it is a translation into English or an anglicised (sic) word is a matter of some uncertainty. The German word for Steele is Stahl. It is known that at one time the Provincial authorities of Pennsylvania required the German immigrants to translate their German name into an English equivalent, thus Zimmerman became Carpenter.
> One of the two earliest spellings of the name in German is found in the Bible of Abraham Studebaker, the progenitor of that branch of the Steele family. His records reads that he was married to Elizabeth Stielen. This may or may not be the proper spelling of the name in German and it may be a word that has an entirely different meaning from Stahl, and there is a possibility that our name is an anglicised (sic) word and not a translation. It is a question that can only be determined by an expert German scholar. As with almost every other family, our early family history is dim and obscure.
> It is however known to a certainty that George Steele lived in Hopewell Township, Bedford County, Pa., on an island in the Raystown branch of the Juniata river; that he died in 1802, and was burried (sic) on this island farm (see page 7). From his will, which is recorded at Bedford, in Will Book No. 1, page 169, (printed at the end of this segment) it is learned that the name of his wife was Margaret, and that the names of his children were Abraham, Jacob, Philip, George, Elizabeth, Mary and Catharine. It is not known when he settled in Bedford county. His name is not on the tax list of 1784. Later lists between 1784 and 1802 would show when he came there. These would be found in the Commissioners' Office of Bedford County.
> The time of his birth can only be a matter of surmise. His wife Margaret died in 1823 at the age of 83 years, and is buried in St. Luke's graveyard near

According to this she would have been born about 1740, and as he probably would have been somewhat older than his wife he may have been born as early as 1730.

There is authority for a statement that at one time a son of Solomon Steele, a grandson of George (through son Abraham), had a record of some sort that was written in an old book , which set forth that George Steele and two brothers, whose names are not known, and who were French protestants, settled near Allentown, Pa., and that George Steele finding that the title to his land was defective, removed farther west.

This record also appears to have said that the name of George Steele's wife was Margaret Doleman. The writer has not been able to trace this record.

While the term French protestants is used, we think that it should be taken to mean that they were French subjects who were born and reared in one or other of the Rhine provinces that were then a part of France, but whose inhabitants were Germans.

In support of the theory that George Steele was a German we have the authority of the late Hon. Wm. P. Schell, of Bedford, Pa., that when he signed his will he wrote the name in German. The will itself is probably written in German, although Mr. Schell said nothing on that point.

The wife of George Steele certainly was a German, because the widow of George F. Steele who remembered her said that she spoke German.

So also did Mary Steele, one of their daughters. In short all of their family, so far as is known, spoke German, which certainly goes far to prove that we are a German family.

Mrs. Rebecca J. Nash, of Portland, Ind., has informed the writer that she remembered her grandmother, Mary Steele Conner, quite well, and had on more than one occasion heard her speak of the manner in which the British soldiery during the period of the Revolutionary War had seized and driven away the cattle of the people. Evidently wherever they did at that time live, it must have been somewhere that was within the theatre (sic) of the war.

Her grand-mother also said that they had at one time lived at or near Hagerstown, Md., and made mention of the cruel manner in which some people treated their Negro slaves.

It may be accepted as a fact that our ancestors went from Hagerstown to Bedford County, Pa., as did many other families from that vicinity.

Concerning the first settlement near Allentown, Pa., which is in Lehigh County, an examination of the early Pennsylvania Archives fails to show the name of any Steeles, Dolemans or Dahlmans in those parts. A gentleman of wide acquaintance in Lehigh County has informed the writer that he has never encountered these names there.

While in the tax lists of Manahan Township, York county, Pa., as early as 1779, there appears the names of George Steele, Sr., and George Steele, Jr.

The name Dahlman also occurs in York County, and it exists there even at this day, and it is not impossible for our ancestors to have been one of these Steeles. It would have been the most natural thing in the world for them to have gone from Hagerstown, Md., and then to Bedford County, Pa., as did many others. We know that all that has been here stated is vague and uncertain. But it covers all the knowledge that we have. It is given in the hope that some future historian of the family may be successful in following these lines to a more definite end."

Unfortunately, little has change since these words were written 90 years ago. To my knowledge, no one has definitely proven the year George immigrated to America. There is however, a good possibility that George's parents were Johann Jakob Stahl, from Lambsheim in the Palatinate (baptized 8 January 1697) who married Anna Maria Strupp (daughter of Hans Georg Strupp of Eppstein) on 24 Jan 1736. The parents of Johann Jacob were Johann Valentin Stahl (1665-1726) and his wife Anna Maria Kielewein. Johann Jakob was received into citizenship at Lambsheim on 10 November 1721. According to Don Yoder's book Rhineland Emigrants (Baltimore: Genealogical Publishing Company, 1985) page 104, Jakob and Anna Maria had two children: Johann George born 12 August 1736; and Susanna born 16 February 1738. They emigrated to America on 28 April 1738. It is believed that this is the same Johann Jacob Stahl, aged 30, on the Ship Winter Galley, arriving at Philadelphia on 5 September 1738 (List 52 A-C).

Lambsheim is located just west of Frankenthal (Platz) and south of Worms in what is now West Germany. Between 1727 and 1775 nearly 70,000 Germans went to the "Island of Pennsylvania", "the promised land".

Records from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania show that a George Steel served during the Revolutionary War as a Private from Lurgan township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania in the 1st Battalion, 8th Company under Captain Jack Patrick (January 1778). A George Steele from Letterkenny township, Cumberland County also served in the 4th Battalion, 3rd Company under Captain Joseph Culbertson 5th Class Private under Captain Charles McClay, Cumberland Company Militia, 1782 (30 August 1780). George's revolutionary service record has been proven by a number of women (including the compiler of this genealogy) for the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR). Letterkenny and Lurgan townships, Cumberland County became part of Franklin County in 1784.

As Welfley stated, a George Steel was found in the 1780-1783 tax lists of Manaham township, York County. If that was our George Steele, it would have meant that he retreated east after the Revolutionary War before continuing on to Frederick County, Maryland and finally Bedford County, Pennsylvania where he died. Maryland land records show George Steel purchased the following land in 1784 in Frederick County, Maryland: Chestnut Bottom, Poplar on the Stone, and Philip's Delight. Maryland Military Land Records show a George Steele granted the following tracts of land in Frederick County: Steel's Good Luck (12 acres) and What You Please (73 acres) both in 1785. Partnership By Many was purchased by Philip Steel in 1794.

In March of 1795, Margaret Steel, wife of "George Steel of Bedford County, Pennsylvania", relinquished her "claim of dower" on land in Frederick County, Maryland. This confirms that George Steele was in Frederick County, Maryland for a short period of time.

James D. Boor, Bedford County Pennsylvania Genealogist (3181 Brumbaugh Road, New Enterprise, Pennsylvania 16664-8661), has located the possible grave site of George Steele. James is a descendant of George through Abraham. James [8], Estella Boor [7], Blanche Miller [6], Harrison [5], Elizabeth Ritchey [4], Jacob [3], Abraham [2], George Steele [1]. I have received permission from James to print the following information regarding George Steel's grave site.

The farm was traditionally called an "Island Farm". It is located on a Peninsula near Stonnertown and Saxton, (Hopewell Township in 1805), now Liberty Township, Bedford County, Pennsylvania. The farm is currently owned by Environmental Resources. It is located in Warrior's Path State Park on Highway 26.

The cemetery is believed to have both Steele's and Harvey's buried there. Legend has it that the tombstones were taken down to the river to build a Fish Dam, sometime prior to 1890. Residents in the area called that portion of the farm "The Cemetery Field". In 1989, a local resident, Josiah Williams or "Cy", showed the location of the cemetery as he heard it from his father, Evan Williams (1890-1958).

The following maps show this location. This area is called the "Blue Bird Trail" (1989). It is believed that George Steele is buried in the vicinity of Blue Bird Box 3.

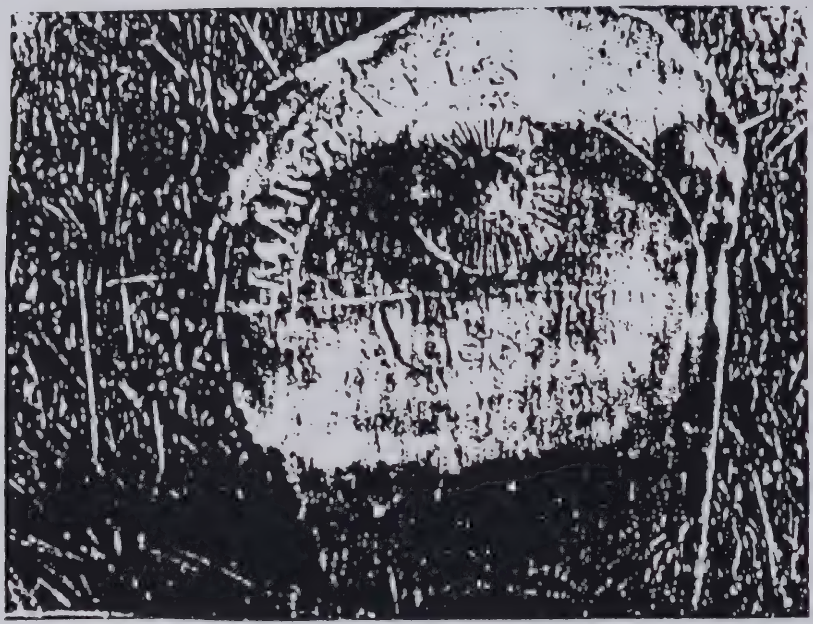
Margaret Doleman (Dahlman), the wife of George Steele, born in 1740 and died in September 1823 and is buried in St. Luke's Cemetery, Liberty township, Bedford County. Her tomb stone was still readable in 1990 when the compiler of this genealogy last visited the cemetery.



Margaret Steele tombstone located in St. Luke's Cemetery,
Liberty township, Bedford County, Pennsylvania.

George and Margaret had eight children: Elizabeth (abt 1761 - ?), Mary (1762 - ?), Abraham (1763 - 1837), Jacob (1772 - 1837), Philip (1758 - 1827), George (? - ?), Catharine (? - ?). This genealogy is on Philip's descendants.

NOTES

Philip Steele

Philip Steele son of the immigrant George Steele was born approximately 1756 -1760 (based on the census) in Pennsylvania. For this genealogy, we will use 1758 as his approximate birth date. There was a Philip Steele who fought in the Revolutionary War as a Ranger of the Frontier from Northumberland County, Pennsylvania (no date given). No further information has been found on this Philip.

Philip bought property, Partnership by Many, in Frederick Co., Maryland in 1794 (see George Steele section). Tax list (Bedford County, Pennsylvania) for 1792, 1793, 1796 - 1798 not on list; 1799 - 50 acres, house 1, cleared land 1, horse 1, cattle 1, Val $ 58 Tax 17 ¢; 1800 tax 17 ¢; 1802 - Philip Steele for Alberta $ 1.20; 1804 - Land 50, Impt Rate 6th, wagon maker Val. $ 26.00, tax 10 ¢; 1805 tax 10 ¢; 1806 and 1807 not on list; 1811 - House & lots, wagon maker, val $ 1.00, tax 20 ¢; 1814 not on list with ages.

On 1 June 1816, Philip's son George applied for 160 acres of public land in Ohio (Bureau of Land Management Certificate # 563). He received the final certificate for this land which was located in Tuscarawas County (Holmes County in 1824), in September 1922. This is the farm on which Philip was buried. Philip and his wife Susannah probably went to Ohio with George or came a short time later.

Philip continued his trade as a wagon maker in Ohio. In 1827, Philip was involved in a business deal involving a franchise to build a flax drying machine. The machine would not work as promised. When Philip died, his son George filed a complaint (see Chancery Record). In this complaint, Philip's death is documented (see page 15). The 1909 Steele genealogy states that Philip was buried on his son George's farm. In 1985, with the help of Mary Rose Steele and David Marshall (Holmes County historian), the farm and cemetery was located. The following is an article written by David Marshall and published in the 5 November 1987 Millersburg, Ohio newspaper.

> In the spring of 1985, I was asked by a young lady in New York (Mary Rose Steele) to help her determine what had become of her ancestor, Philip Steele, whom the family records related had died in Holmes County.
> A search of local records led to the discovery that Philip had lived in the southwest corner of German (now Clark) Township along the headwaters of Mill Creek. Here he had lived as a wagon master until his death in 1828.
> Shortly after receiving the first request, I was referred by the county recorder to help a young Amish man, Henry Yoder, trace his land. When this was completed I found that he was living on part of the 160 acre farm that Phillip Steele had originally patented. The family records claimed that Phillip was > buried in the family cemetery, but local records gave no clues to its existence.

> Yoder also is a wagon maker and wheel wright and as we talked in his shop, an elderly Amishman who was working on a buggy in the rear of the shop made a comment. "When I was young," he related, "there was a small cemetery on the hill above the Erb House, we passed it every day as we walked to school. It had only about 10 to 12 stones, but I don't know what ever happened to it."
> I was directed to the home of Delbert Erb who lived at the foot of the hill. I found that Erb was a young farmer who had recently purchased the farm. When I asked about the cemetery's existence he told me that it no longer existed although one can still see the different shade of grass in the place where it once stood. What became of the stones, I questioned.
> I found a few of them along the edge of the field and they are in my corncrib. In a few moments, we hauled out four stones which were in quite excellent condition. Two were of children of Rev. Elias Steele. Elias was a minister who had served in Coshocton and Holmes counties before moving to Elkhart, Ind. (actually St. Joseph County).
> He was also the son of Phillip Steele. Next was a stone for a daughter of William and Susan Kaser. Susan was a daughter of Phillip. Finally came a large ornate hand-carved stone. This was for George Steele. George had served as administrator for his father, Phillip, only to die in 1838, shortly after he had finished settling the estate. Many of George's descendants still live in the area; especially those of his son Moses Steele who with his wagon trains, helped many area families move to northwestern Ohio.
> About six months after this discovery, I was called by a lady visiting from northern Indiana (compiler of this genealogy). She was a descendant of Jacob Steele, another of Phillip's sons. It turned out that she was president (vice-president) of the Steele family reunion which is still held by the descendants of Elias and Jacob (annually since 1900).
> When she became aware of the recent discoveries she was quite excited. Last summer a collection was taken up at the reunion. Almost $ 400 was collected and the Steele descendants convinced Erb to take a small part of his orchard and fence it in and reset the stones.
> Future plans call for a possible memorial for Philip and his wife Susannah. So, after many years of neglect - the Steele family cemetery is back in existence - a good example of many people working together.

Little is known regarding Susannah Oaks (Ochs). Perhaps she was the daughter of John Oakes who died in Bedford County, Pennsylvania. Letters of administration were filed 1 September 1801 with Philip Steel listed as a surety.

	Philip Steele Dec.	No. of Nov. Term 1829
I. Glasgow	Daniel Tumains	In Chancery

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the thirteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine the said complainant filed in the office of the clerk of this court his bill of complaint in the (?) and figures following to wit.

To the Court of Common Pleas of the court of Holmes in Chancery Sitting. The petition of George Steel administrator of the goods and chattels of Philip Steel dec. respectfully represents that Daniel Tumains of said County whom your petitioner pray may be made defendant to this bill received a Judgement on the law side of this court in an action of (?) per the sum of twenty two dollars damages and costs of suit against your petitioners as administrator as aforesaid.

That the said judgement was received as a single Bill given the 27th of january 1827 by the said Philip Steel in his lifetime by which the said Philip as this petition is informed and duly believes for and in consideration that the said Tumains had sold unto the said Philip the right and privilege of making and using and vending machinery for drying flax within German Township and County of Holmes aforesaid the said Philip by the note on single bill on which the said judgement was founded agreed to deliver to the said Tumains the running gears of one new firehouse wagon to be made of good seasoned timber and put together and in a good workmanlike manner to be paid against the first of July next to be delivered at Millersburg. that this petitioner is informed and verily believes that at the time when the said contract was made and for the purpose of inducing the said Philip to make the purchase as before stated of the right of making using and vending the said machine in the said Township of German aforesaid. the said Tumains then and there represented and agreed with the said Philip that the said machine constructed agreeably to a model then exhibited by the said Tumains with the appittance or labour of two men would drip four hundred pounds of flax pr. day which representation and appearance the said Tumains well knew were absolutely false.

This petition further represents that a short time after the said contract was made the said Philip procured a machine to be made by a competent workman agreeably to and in conformity with the said model and endeavor to drip flax in the manner proscribed by the said Tumains that the said machine in all its parts was well and faithfully made - but on making trail thereof in dripping flax it was ascertained that it was good for nothing at all that instead of dripping 400 pounds of flax per day it would not drip any flax or anything else that the sale of the right to make & sell the said machine was a gross imposition on the said Philip and the money and time expanded by him in the construction of the said machine was an entire loss that the consideration before stated of the said note was the only consideration which passed from the said Tumains to the said Philip and that the said Judgement was founded solely on the said note of single bill.

That the said Tumains now threatened by sueing out an execution from this court as account of law to compel the payment of the said judgement as aforesaid stated against our petitioner as administrator of the estate of the said Philip although the said Tumaine well knows that the said single bill was given without any good or valuable consideration all which actings and doings are contrary to equity and good conscience.

In tender consideration whereof and in as much as your petitioner is without remedy at common law he is compelled to resort to this court for relief where matters of this kind are properly relievable. To the end therefore that Justice may be dine in the premises your petitioner prays that a subpena may be issued commanding the said defendant to be and appear before this court and abide and perform such decree as this court may make and that this court will decree that this defendant may be perpetually enjoined from further proceeding in the said suit at law and to enter satisfaction on said judgement - and that this court will grant here such further and the other relief as the nature of the case may require and as in duty bound he will acknowledge the justice of this court.

Descendants of Philip Steele

Generation No. 1

1. Philip^2 Steele (George^1)[1,2,3] was born Abt. 1758 in Somerset Co., Pennsylvania, and died June 1827 in Holmes Co., Ohio. He married Susannah Oaks[4,5] Abt. 1790 in Somerset Co., Pennsylvania.

Notes for Philip Steele:
Welfley stated in the 1909 genealogy, "If we may assume that he [Philip] and his wife [Susannah Ochs] were about the same age, then he was born somewhere between 1756 and 1760, and that he died about 1840, perhaps a little earlier, perhaps a little later. His wife was Susannah Oaks as the name is spelled now, but the original spelling was Ochs, with the sound of the German word for ox. She was so far as we know, a Bedford county, (Pa.) women; she is said to have been 98 years of age at the time of her death which took place about 1854. It is almost certain that Philip Steele lived in or near Salisbury, Somerset county, Pa., for a time. By trade he was a wagon maker. He removed to Ohio, probably as far back as 1835, or even earlier; he lived and died near New Bedford, in German township, Holmes county. He was then living with his son George and was buried in a burial ground on the farm of his son."

The 1955 Elias Steele genealogy, states Philip "... was born at Salisbury, Pa., about 1756" and "... Susannah Oaks (Ochs) was born in Bedford Co., Pa., in 1756."

An article was published on William Welfley in The Laurel Messenger (publication of the Historical and Genealogical Society of Somerset County, Pennsylvania) volume 26 number 4, November 1985 page 185 - 188 "Footprints in Somerset History". William's father, Jacob Welfley died before William was nine years old. Elizabeth then married Nelson Simpkins. They had three children. In 1860, he learned photography, a profession he followed for many years. William received the nickname of "Julius" during his visiting Civil War troops.

William served for nineteen terms as Burgess of Somerset starting in 1875. At the age of forty-two, William became deaf from scarlet fever. Because of that infliction, writing became his main source of communication. He was a noted historian of Somerset County and collected newspaper clippings, files, letters and books pertaining to the county and community. In 1906 he completed the three volume "History of Bedford and Somerset Counties Pennsylvania". In 1909 he completed the Steele family genealogy "A Genealogy of the Descendants of George Steele and his Wife Margaret". William never married and therefore stated he had no close family ties.
